

costs and all proper relief.

Wherefore he prays as in his original petition and generally for amount or of the original amount paid the Bank by him has ever been paid, repay surety for the above amount and interest: that no part of said and since said time he has held and kept the same and owned it as collateral and surrendered to him the note sued on which it held as above stated, on, as surety for J. A. KYLER and at said time and place the Bank delivered to take up said pay off to it the said note of $320.00 with interest there-

He states that on June 20, 1912 he was compelled by said Bank as surety on said indebtedness.

pledge was and is a negotiation thereof for value to said Bank and to him note in law was on said Oct. 12, 1912 pledged for his benefit and said Sanders was surety and owed no part of said debt: that as such surety said collateral to secure said indebtedness: that on all said renewals for 1912 been in the possession and ownership of the said Bank pledged as on this at all times since Oct. 12, 1912 to and including June 20, note sued on was first pledged as collateral security: that the note sued on of the original debt of $420.00 and was and is the same debt for which the

He states that the $320.00 note last referred to was the balance and kept as collateral security therefor between the said J. A. KYLER and the Bank and note sued on was retained to said Bank as a note for $320.00 due six months, and by agreement

He states that on Oct. 12, 1912 said $420.00 note was again renewed under agreement between the said Sanders and J. A. KYLER and the Bank.

and the said note sued on was retained and kept as collateral security therefor for six months as a note for $320.00, due in six months to said Bank

He states that on April 12, 1914, said $420.00 note was again renewed

Joe Sanders
Attested
Witness
W. J. Sanders
1/20/14
Joe Sanders