

R.S. Van-Arsdall & Samuel Graves. Mercer Quarterly Court

Partners,

Plaintiffs

vs. Affidavit

W.R. Currens

Defendant

Affiant Samuel Graves says that he is a partner in the firm of Vanarsdall and Graves, composed of himself and R.S. Vanarsdall and that the Defendant W.R. Currens is indebted to said firm in the sum of $30.10 and interest at the rate of 6 per cent from July 24, 1916, until paid. He states that said indebtedness is shown in a note executed by Defendant and delivered by him to the Plaintiffs for small stuff furnished him at his request. He says that said claim is just and affiant believes Plaintiffs ought to recover of Defendant the said sum and interest and his cost herein expended. He says that the Defendant has sold and is selling his property with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder and delay his creditors and especially these Plaintiffs. He further states that the Defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy Plaintiffs' demand and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return no property found.
