in the church last Tuesday afternoon at two-thirty. Mrs. W. D. King, president, presided. The lesson was a visit to our home mission fields, which proved to be very interesting. Plans were made for a week of prayer during September, and the month of October was set aside as mission month. Every department of the church will be organized for mission activity.

HARRODSBURG SCHOOLS*Notice To Parents

The Harrodsburg City Schools will open Monday morning, September 7, at 9 o'clock.

All parents who have children in the first six grades are requested to come to the Graded School on Monday morning with the children to sign the card for Free Text-Books. No book may be issued to any child until his parent or guardian has signed this card.

All Junior and Senior High school students will convene in the auditorium of the high school to receive their instructions for enrollment and classification.

All pupils entering our school from another school will be expected to bring a report card showing the school work done during the last school year. All high school students entering from another high school are required to have a transcript of their credits sent to the school by the principal of the last high school they attended.

Preliminary conferences of the teachers will be held on Friday, September 4. The elementary teachers will meet at the Graded School at 9 o'clock in the morning and the Junior and Senior high school teachers will meet at the High School in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

J. K. Powell, Prin.

PIONEER PARK NOTES

(H. C. Wood, Curator)

Hurrah! for the Blue Ribbon. For nobly to our aid, Ernest came with orange ice—One hundred in the shade. And when we had partaken Of this delicious treat—All voted the Blue Ribbon Is just the place to eat.

A party from Washington Court House, Ohio, visited the Park, bringing with them a Chinese lad who seemed deeply interested. Also much interested, were a party of English people who were touring Kentucky.

Rev. G. R. Tomlin brought as his guests to the Park his father and brother from Covington, Ky.

Mrs. R. E. Montgomery, nee Lorraine Ransdell, formerly of this place, was a recent visitor to the Park, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss Isabelle Montgomery, of Idaho City, Idaho.

A party of nine visited the Park on Saturday. On inquiry it was learned that it was one family, father and mother and seven fine stalwart boys from Wichita Falls, Texas.

A number of children with their teacher from Bayles, Washington county, took in the Park, and after visiting Fort and Mansion had a picnic dinner under the trees.

Mr. Carl C. Kwak, of Seoul, Korea, visited the Fort on August 27. He is a student at the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, Ill. After finishing there he plans to go back home and teach music.

Miss Lillian Edger had as her guests at the Park some friends from Florida for a few days.

A group of Boy Scouts from the Military School of the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors home at Xenia, Ohio, and Springfield, Ohio with their leaders visited the Fort on Thursday of last week.

wonderful change in the atmosphere of the Park in the past day or two, which makes one feel that Autumn has begun to make her grateful appearance a joy to the tourist who has started out to see things.

Science Enriches Land
Two-thirds of America's productive agricultural land in Hawaii is devoted to growing sugar cane.

The Word "Daisy"
"Daisy" is a contraction of the word "day's eye," given because the flower closes at night.
