

Mercer Circuit Court

Henry B. Claunch,

Plaintiff

VS
Amended Petition and Schedule

Commonwealth of Kentucky,

Defendant

Amending his petition and schedule Plaintiff says that upon the death of his mother, Margaret Claunch, he inherited from her a one - eighth interest in thirty acres of land owned by his mother at the time of her death; in addition her inherited a one eighth interest in thirty three acres , the property of his grandmother who died in 1899, the name of his grandmother being Martha Patterson . Said interest in his grandmother's property came to him upon the death of his mother

Margaret Claunch who held said property her lifetime.

Plaintiff says that for the sum of $200.00 he sold said property to his father and that deed to same was made on or about the 17th day of June 1925. and that he now has no interest in the same that he knows of.

He further states that about eight acres of corn were grown on the property inherited from his grandmother, Martha Patterson.

in the year 1925. and that he claims no interest in the same because of having disposed of his property to his father

Plaintiff, Henry B. Claunch states that the statement of the foregoing petition and schedule are true.

Signed and sworn to before me by Henry B. Claunch this the 23th., day of September 1925.
