-v- Petition

Sam H. Dean

Defendant

The Plaintiffs state thatat the special instance and request of the defendant at the times mentioned in the annexed account they furnished to him labor and materials in and about the repair of certain automobiles, all of which work and materials are set forth and itemized in said account; that the amounts charged therein are the reasonable and usual charges for similar services labor and mater~~ials~~ials and that the same amount to the sum of $111.46; that said sum is just due and owing; that no part thereof has ever been paid.

Wherefore they pray judgment for $111.46 and costs and all proper relief.
