Pfc. Leonard Dies June 11 In Philippines

Private First Class Fred Leonard, Jr., of Harrodsburg, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leonard of that city, died on June 11, 1943, according to a report of the International Red Cross received yesterday by telegram from the War Department.

Private Leonard is the 23-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leonard of Dayton, Ohio, formerly of Harrodsburg.

His death is the third reported among members of the Harrodsburg National Guard known as Company D, 192nd Tank Battalion which went to the Philippines.

Others of the group previously reported dead were Sergeant Wallace Denny, whose wife is Mrs. Alma Best Denny; and Sergeant Elizie Anness, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. AHnness, all of Mercer county.

Private Leonard is survived also by a sister, Miss Betty Leonard, and two brothers, Russell and Jackie Leonard, all of Dayton.
