INSTRUCTIONS

PURPLE HEART

1. These reports will be made out in quadruplicate at the close of each month, three copies to be mailed direct to The Office of The Quartermaster General and one copy retained for the superintendent's file.
2. Data for the respective columns in this report will be carefully copied from telegram or other communication from The Quartermaster General authorizing interment or papers presented with request for interment.
3. If decedent served under an alias (or assumed name), give both the alias and the true name, writing the true name on the first line, followed on the second line by the word "alias" and the surname under which he served, with the Christian name, rank, company, regiment, etc., following on the same line.
4. If the decedent be a soldier's widow, the name of widow and date of death will be written on the first line, followed on the second line by the name of her husband, with his rank, company, regiment, date of death, and grave number.
5. If the decedent be a civilian, the character of his employment and the department by which employed, or, if not a Government employee, the name of the officer, soldier, or Government employee, or other person to whom the decedent was related, with the reason and the authority for the interment will be given.
6. In cases of disinterments, give the places at which reinterment will be made.
7. Requests for these blanks will be made direct to The Office of The Quartermaster General.
