First National Bank-

Plff-

Vs-

Answer-

John Deshazer, Etc-

Dft's-

Comes now the defendant, Sallie Deshazer, and for answer to the plaintiff's petition herein, denies that on the 13th day of April, 1923, she and ~~the-defe~~ her co-defendant, John Deshazer, signed a note to the First National Bank and executed and delivered to said Bank a note for the sum of $120.14, or any sum or at all. She denies that the signature 'Sallie Deshazer' on said note is her signature or that same was written by her or by any one authorized by her in writing. She pleads and relies upon the doctrine of non-es-factum in this action.

Wherefore she prays to be dismissed with all her costs and that said petition be dismissed as to her and for all relief to which she is or may appear to be entitled- special, general and proper-
