Richard L. Cornman
Notary Public Mercer County Ky.

State of Kentucky,
County of Mercer, Set,
The affiant, J. W. Davenport, states that he is the President of Harrodsburg Implement Co a corporation under the Kentucky laws; that said corporation is engaged in the business of selling and furnishing repairs, accessories, parts and supplies such as gas and oil for automobiles at Harrodsburg, Ky; that beginning with Dec. 11, 1920 to and including March 14, 1921, said corporation sold furnished and delivered to J. H. Varnarsdall at the times and the articles set out in the attached itemized account, for which he agreed to pay it the total sum of $69.80 but no part of which has ever been paid; said account shows all articles furnished, the amounts agreed to be paid therefor and all just credits discounts and offsets to which he is entitled that said articles were furnished for, and were actually used in, with, on and in the operation of one Hup Mobile touring car Motor #15593 He states that said car is registered in the name of J. H. Varnarsdall or J. Howard Varnarsdall being the same person and that as far as the knowledge of this affiant goes said car belongs to him and he was operating the same and said corporation believed it belonged to him at the time said articles were delivered, but that ~~max~~ it is now informed that Lottie Varnarsdall wife of J. H. Varnarsdall ~~him~~ then that he was operating it as the agent of the wife and as such agent purchased for her the articles referred to; that both reside in Mercer County Ky; that there is justly due said corporation $69.80 and he for it asserts a lien for said sum with $1.25 filing and releasing fees.
