1916

To account for prefessional services,

$12.50

The affiant J.W Sams, states that he is the holder and owner of the attached account for $12.50 against James Smith; that the same is just and no part thereof has ever been paid. That his claim is for services rendered to the Defendant at his special instance and request; that said charges are reasonable and that the Def agreed and promised to pay the same, and that affiant ought to recover the amount charged, to wit, $12.50; that the Defendant has no property in this State subject to execution, and that the collection of his claim will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and a return of no property found; that the Defendant is about to sell and convey his property with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder and delay his creditors.
