

Mercer, 1915.

Witness, my hand as Judge Mercer County Court, this the 29th day of March 1915 executed the same.

Executed the within writ of forcible detainer by going upon the premises described therein, and searching for some one of the defendants, but failing to find either of them thereon, or in Mercer County, and failing to find any member of the family of either of the defendants on the premises. I then posted a copy of this writ in a conspicuous place on the premises to-wit on the front door of the ~~KKKKK~~ ^{Warehouse} building situated on the premises and I also delivered a true copy of this writ to Fox Peach, an agent and employee of the defendants.

This March 29, 1915.

John Morgan -
Sheriff of Mercer County, Ky.

of Citizens Bank of Burlington, Ky and Clerk Coleman and J. H. Spence and J. T. Burnett, as the tenants property was in the respective possession of the said parties Burlington Bank SS. 22, N 2.32 contains to the beginning, containing one acre, which said fence is 140 ft. N 2.12 contains to a stone corner to said Battery, fence is 22, 22, E 32 links to a stone Battery, a corner in N.E. line, said N.E. Co right of way, fence with right of way measuring 12 links fence with said N.E. Co N 22, E 32 links to a stone Battery, a corner to said N.E. Co right of way, fence with right of way measuring 12 links to said N.E. Co right of way, fence with same N 22, E 32 links, then Block 24, in the line of said Battery fence is 140 ft. E 3.34 contains to O. Mercer County, Ky, beginning at a stone in the northern limits of said estate with the buildings thereon adjoining the town of Burlington, in one of the of Mercer County, Kentucky detrain from them, the following & Burnett and also as the Burlington Packing Co, being one and the same, did bring to me first B. Spence and J. T. Burnett, doing business as Spence Coleman and Citizens Bank of Burlington, Ky having made common the commonwealth of Kentucky, to the Sheriff of Mercer County:-

Clerk Coleman & Co
Pliff

Writ
v-

Burgin Packing Co
Dfts

To April 2, 1915 10 a.m.