

The Harrodsburg Herald

Published every Friday.

Entered in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, post office as second-class mail matter.

D. M. HUTTON, Editor.

MEMBER

KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

ORGANIZED JANUARY, 1898

NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

1936

MEMBER

LETTERS from Our Readers

Editor Herald:

Knowing The Herald has many readers who, in politics, are Republicans I am writing a short article for your paper on some of the leaders of the House and Senate.

One of the most prominent members of the Senate and the Republican leader of that branch of the State Government is Senator Ray B. Moss. He represents the counties of Bell, Laurel and Knox. Senator Moss is in the prime of life being in the forties. He is a gentleman of splendid appearance, cool in debate and has that perfect mental poise that fits him for a leader of men.

While we differ with him in politics it is a pleasure to us to speak of his splendid qualifications which enables him to make and hold his multitude of friends. We believe without fear of contradiction this high class business man would be a credit to his Congressional District and the State were he sent to the National Capitol to represent his district in the lower House. Whether the gentleman has such ambition is not known to the writer. We simply say the district would be honored were he selected by the people as their representative.

The Republican leader of the House is Hon. Claude L. Hammons. He is a native of Knox county in eastern Kentucky as many know. He is thirty four years old and like many of the people of that section of the state, he is a splendid specimen of physical manhood. This young leader of his party entered the World War at the age of fifteen and served with distinction overseas. He operates a grocery and other business, is a member of the American Legion and half a dozen other orders.

The House leader is a ready debater and is ever ready to grasp anything and everything he thinks will advance the interest of his party. His name has been mentioned by quite a few of his party as a candidate for United States Senator to fill the seat now so ably filled by Senator M. M. Logan.

At this writing from what is heard throughout the State, the Hon. John Young Brown, of Lexington, who so ably and gallantly fought a most unpopular tax, the sales tax, will easily be the next United States Senator from the Blue Grass State regardless of whom the Republicans nominate. Should this young leader in the lower House be the nominee of his party these two brilliant and fiery young Kentuckians will treat us to a feast of oratory such as has not been heard in Kentucky for several years.

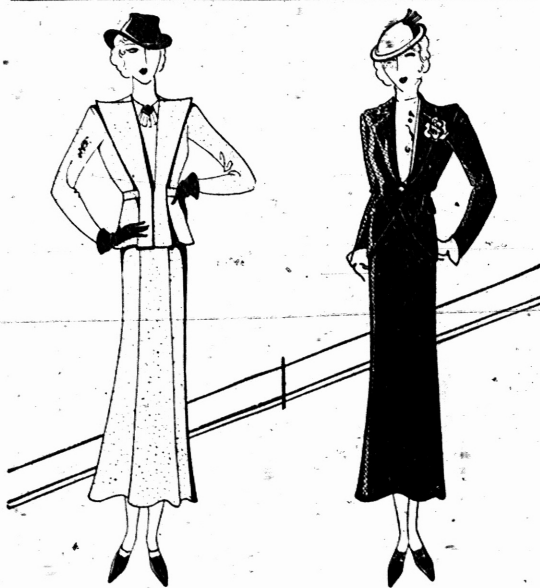

There are quite a few able Republican members of the House, among them the Hon. Chester D. Silver, of Lexington, and others whose names I do not recall. Our old friend, Hon. J. A. Coleman, a fine gentleman from Pulaski county who has represented his legislative district for years tries to vote right on bills but from my point of view, is too loyal a Republican to be right all the time.

In your next issue I hope to tell you something about some of the outstanding Democrats of both branches of our State government.

I am very sincerely,

Thos. P. Reed.

Chic Spring Tailleurs From Paris

PARIS—Spring tailleurs are now making their appearance and they are full of originality and chic, designed not only for morning or informal wear but for smart afternoon purposes as well. At the left of the picture is shown a model from Lanvin in Boutonne crepe de laine of rayon. It has large lapels and is in tortoise shell brown. It is worn over a satin blouse of rayon in a lighter shade, with a mother-of-pearl and brown plastic motif at the neck. The other tailleur is by Heim and is developed in a lovely rayon and silk cellulose film fabric with a pink boutonniere, also in the cellulose material.

Paris Office
Du Pont Style Service

Hoboes Plan National Home Near Bardstown

Locate Union's Home Near Where Collins Wrote Ky. Song "Because He Was a Hobo."

(Bardstown Standard)

The hoboes of America were in mourning last week over the loss of one of their executive board members, who Jeff Davis, their "King," said, signed hobo correspondence as the "Columbus Kid, sometimes known as Thurston, the magician." Thurston, a native of Columbus, Ohio, had been a trustee or "engineer" in the hobos' order since 1917, Davis declared.

Moreover, the 'boes plan "something more permanent" than mere signs of mourning. Davis, dynamic little leader of an asserted membership of 811,000 in the International Itinerant Workers' Union, announced. They plan to erect, a "Thurston cottage" on a "National Home" farm they propose to buy near Bardstown, Ky.

Already, he said, $184 is available toward the purchase price and there's "promise of about $1,000 more." The farm, he explained, will be a "spot" where "men, who having lost an arm or a leg on the road, and not being citizens of any State, may go to live their last years in peace."

The Bardstown site is being considered, "King Jeff" asserted, because it was near that little community where Stephen Collins Foster "wrote some of his greatest songs." "And Foster was a hobo," he beamed. "Many a time he didn't know where his next meal was coming from, but he kept right on, a worthy hobo giving of his best, for his songs are among the best, even today."

"Suitable action" toward purchase of the farm, inauguration of the Thurston Memorial and selection of successors to other offices made vacant by death will be among business before the hoboes at their international convention in Louisville May 2-7, Davis announced.

Building Material of all kinds. Money saved by seeing us before buying. Lee Smock Co., Inc.

KY. HEIRS GET $2,040 IN SUITCASE THEY SOLD

Heirs of C. C. Williams, the Court of Appeals held this week are entitled to the return of $2,040 found, nine years after his death, hidden in the lining of a suitcase he owned. Williams, a World War veteran, died in the Atwood Hospital in 1926. Without knowing about the money, his heirs sold the suitcase to Virgil Baugh, of Eubank, who early last year found the money in $20 and $50 certificates, pasted inside the lining with adhesive tape.

BANKERS WILL MEET AT SOMERSET IN MAY

May 7 has been tentatively set as the date for a meeting of Group Six of the Kentucky Bankers Association at the Hotel Beecher in Somerset. More than 150 bankers in that district of the association are expected to attend, and several leading bankers of the State will have places on the program. A banquet will be held in connection with the business session.

Thirty-two emergency airports have been developed in Washington state under the CWA program. Approximately $278,248 was spent improving landings on established airways.

Hand The Herald $1.50.

FORMER HARRODSBURG WOMAN IN AUTO MISHAP

Miss Katherine G. Sullivan, formerly of Harrodsburg, now Versailles clubwoman and past regent of Gen. Marquis Calmes Chapter, D. A. R., injured in a motor collision on the Frankfort Pike Sunday, suffered a fracture of a vertebrae, an X-ray examination revealed Monday. Miss Sullivan is at the Woodford Memorial Hospital, where she was removed after the accident.

A sedan in which Miss Sullivan, Keene Arnold, Mrs. Arnold, Sta. D. A. R. regent for Kentucky, and Mrs. John Pearson were riding was struck and knocked from the road by a passing car, whose driver did not stop, they stated. The other occupants of the sedan were not injured other than being shaken up.

Miss Sullivan had returned Saturday to Versailles after a visit with her brother, C. B. Sullivan, and Mrs. Sullivan, Harrodsburg.

FINDS "LIGHTNING TRACKS"

Julian J. Petty, an assistant in Ohio State university's department of geography, has found more than 100 "lightning tracks" known as fulgurites, in Carolina sandpits. They are glass-like, hollow rods formed by the passage of lightning through sandy soil, the heat melting the sand.

Hand the Herald $1.50.

NEW FARMERS SUPPLY COMPANY OPENS HERE

A branch business of the Danville Farmers Supply Company, Inc., has opened for business in Harrodsburg on West Broadway in the building formerly occupied by the Farmers Store operated by E. I. Hopper. Roy Rice, of Danville will be in charge and the local business will handle the same merchandise handled by the Danville store, which Boyle county people have found an asset to their community. Mrs. Rice was a resident of Mercer county.

Jeppha Jett and W. B. Coleman, who are connected with the Danville store, are also interested in the Harrodsburg store. Their advertisement appears in another section of this paper.

LANE BUYS SENFF'S INTEREST IN PAPER

R. H. Lane this week purchased the interest of Gemmill B. Senff in the Mount Sterling Sentinel Democrat. Mr. Lane and Mr. Senff have operated the paper jointly for the last sixteen years. Mr. Senff recently has been appointed postmaster there, which requires all his time.

STINGLESS BEES

Stingless bees are being introduced into England from Southern Rhodesia, where their honey is a favorite sweet of native children.

Try an ad in our Classified column.

EAT AND DRINK

AT

CORNISH POPLAR LAWN

Opening Saturday, May 2

- Country Ham Sandwiches
- Hamburgers
- Home-made Ice Cream
- Custard and Pineapple Ice
- Served in Cone or Dish

- Coca Cola
- Iced Tea
- Lemonade
- Orangeade

Curb Service

Chairs and Tables on Lawn

Located in former Tucker House—Opposite Mansion Museum

BACK AGAIN

AT SAME OLD STAND

FATTY AND BILL

(NELSON SUTHERLAND and BILL COCANOUGH)

Let us do your Garage Work. We will be glad to see all our old friends and to make new ones at the Shell Garage and Lunch Room.

FATTY AND BILL

Something You Will Want—

Linen Suits

Also White Flannel Coats and Suits. The very thing to have to start the summer.

We have just received a new shipment of crepe dresses suitable for graduation. We also have a nice line of evening dresses.

HATS—that will lead this summer have just arrived.

Don't you forget that we carry a full line of GOSSARD Corsets, Kayser hose, gloves and undies.

BOARD AND BURTON

MAIN & DEPOT STREETS

HARRODSBURG, KY.

IT'S THE TOPS IN STAGE SHOWS

3 Act Comedy
10 BIG TIME
VANVILATE
50 PEOPLE
Jimmie Heffner
The
JOTTIS FAVORITE COMEDIAN
BEAUTY
Singing & Dancing
CHORUS
Gorgeously Costumed Showing under the most beautiful
TENT THEATRE
in the WORLD
Bring the family

Doors Open 7 P. M.—Show Starts 8 O'clock

Harrodsburg, Ky.—2 Days Only

Commencing

Monday, May 11th

Located on Fort Harrod Lot

3 Act Comedy-Drama "Tamed and How"

Happy LeRoy, Ace Black Face Comedian

SHEBA—In her sensational dance "The Ethiopian Love Dance"

LADIES FREE

One Lady Free on Each Paid Adult Ticket

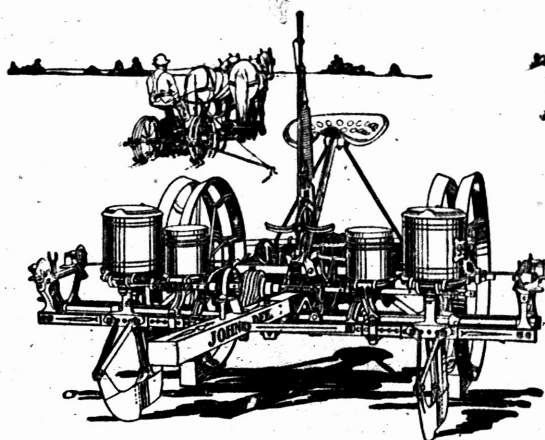

ADULTS 25c

CHILDREN 15c

Announcement!

It is with pride and pleasure that we announce that we are the authorized agents in Mercer county of—

THE JOHN DEERE FARM IMPLEMENTS

JOHN DEERE CORN PLANTER

We carry a complete line of John Deere repair parts.

COME IN AND VISIT US

JOHN DEERE DISC HARROW

DODGE CARS, DODGE TRUCKS, and PLYMOUTH CARS.

Harrodsburg Motor Co.

GREENVILLE STREET OPPOSITE STONE GARAGE

RICHARD CORMAN

PHONE 83

GEORGE W. DURR