

The Commonwealth of Kentucky,

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Mercer County:

Whereas J. E. Bradshaw hath made complaint to me as Judge of the Mercer County Court, that

F. M. Hogue

did on the 1st day of Feb., 1917, forcibly detain from him a piece of property known as the old toll gate house on the pike leading from Harrodsburg, Ky., to Burgin, Ky., and bounded on the west by the property of Golver Kyle; on the east by the property of Walter

Clenden on the north by the turnpike leading from Harrodsburg, Ky., to Burgin

Kentucky,

which was in the peaceable possession of said against said J. E. Bradshaw,

You are therefore commanded to summon the said

F. M. Hogue

to appear at the Court House in Harrodsburg, Ky., to answer on the day of Feb., 1917, the charge of forcible Detainer and give to the said

F. M. Hogue, at least three days' notice of the time and place of the trial, and have then and there this writ.

Witness my hand, this

19 day of

Feb.,

1917.

J. M. C. C.
