Bill King, Etc-

Dft's-

The plaintiff, George Merrimon, states that it is true that some of the furniture on which he had a mortgage and which beloged to the defendant, Bill King, was stored for a while on the premises of the said W.B.Matherly. He says that said storage claimed by the said Matherly was subsequent to the mortgage of plaintiff and therefore inferior thereto. He also says that of the furniture stored with the said Matherly the following articles were not produced by the said Matherly for a sale and that his mortgage covered said articles and that they were of the value annexed to their names, Viz:

A large tub full of queensware and glassware-	$5.00-
One dining table-	10.00-
One electric fan-	10.00-

Total-	$25.00 -

Wherefore plaintiff asks that said W.B.Matherly be by an order of this Court ^{be} directed to produce said articles for sale, or in default of his production of said articles, ~~he~~ ^{Plff} be given a judgment for the value in the sum of $25.00 and alsp the cost of this pleding and incident thereto- He prays for all relief-
