

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

J.W. BLAND LUMBER CO.,

----- Plaintiff

VS.

PETITION

MAMIE PINKSTON,-----

Defendant

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

Plaintiff, J.W. Bland Lumber Company, says that, on and between the 2nd., day of April and the 6th., day of May 1921 it sold and delivered to Defendant at the request of Defendant, lumber and other supplies of the value of $16.25, the particulars of which are stated in a statement of the account filed herewith and marked "A" of said petition; that Defendant has not paid any part of said account and that altho requested to do so has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay said account or any part of same.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff asks for judgment against Defendant for $16.25 , for his costs, and for any other relief Plaintiff may appear entitled to.
