

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT-

HUNTLEY RANSDALE-

PLFF-

VS- PETITION-

MERRITT WOOLDRIDGE-

DFT-

The plaintiff, Huntley Ransdall, states that on the 1st day of November, 1920, the defendant, Merritt Wooldridge, executed and delivered to him, for value received, his certain promissory note for the sum of $132.50 with interest thereof from date at the rate of 6% until paid, ~~He says it~~ and due and payable on the 1st day of February, 1922. He says that said note is long past due and payment thereof has been demanded but refused. He says that the defendant has no property in this State subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy plaintiff's demands and the demands of the defendant's creditors and that the collection of said demand will be endangered by delay in obtaining a judgment and a return of no property found and that this is an action for money due upon a contract and ~~the~~ that it is just and the defendant ought to pay thereon said amount. Note filed herewith. Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $132.50 with interest thereon from the 1st day of November, 1920, until paid and all costs of this action and for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant including a garnishee summons against the Burley Tobacco Association known as the Association. He prays for all relief to which he is or may appear to be entitled.
