

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

Curtis Allin,

Plaintiff

Red Star Transportation Company, Defendant

Defendant, Red Star Transportation Company, denies that on _____ day of May 1924 or any other time it entered into a contract in this county with this Plaintiff under the terms of which contract Plaintiff promised and agreed to circulate a petition in the counties of Mercer and Boyle or any other county; denies that by the terms of the alleged contract or any other contract this Plaintiff was to obtain ~~in~~ upon said petition the names of citizens who were interested in having the Defendant to engage in the business of transporting passengers and in the general bus line business; denies that it desired to use said petition or any petition in connection with obtaining license to engage in a general bus line business; denies that in consequence of the alleged contract or any other contract this Plaintiff did present~~s~~ said petition or any other petition to the citizens of Mercer and Boyle counties or did obtain thereupon names of many citizens or any ~~in~~ citizens of the said counties of Mercer and Boyle or in all or any respects carried out his alleged contract or any other contract with this Defendant.

It denies that in consideration of this Plaintiff circulating the alleged petition or any other petition or