

Mercer ~~County Court~~ Quarterly Court.

W. K. Tevis, Plaintiff,

v. Petition.

W. T. Jones and
B. L. Jones Defendants.

The plaintiff, W. K. Tevis, states that the defendants, W. T. Jones and B. L. Jones, by their joint promissory note, which is filed herewith and made part hereof, and which was executed and delivered to the plaintiff on February 17th, 1902, agreed and promised to pay said plaintiff on the first day of December ~~thereafter~~ thereafter the sum of seventy two dollars, no part of which has ever been paid by said defendants or either of them; that said note is past due and wholly unpaid.

Wherefore he prays judgment for the sum of seventy two dollars against said defendants, with interest thereon at six per centum per annum from December 1, 1902, until paid and his costs herin expended.

*J. T. Wilson atty
for plaintiff.*
