G.A.SALLEE-

PLFF-

VS- PETITION-

BOWMAN TAYLOR-

PARAGRAPH NO- 1-

DFT-

The plaintiff, G.A.Sallee, states that in the year 1922 he rented to the defendant, Bowman Taylor, a house and lot in Harrodsburg, Ky., for the sum of $15.00 per month; that the said defendant remained in the house and used the lot and premises for 34 days after the expiration of his time and that the said rental value of same at the prior contract price would be and is $17.00, which defendant has failed and refused to pay though payment has been repeatedly demanded.

Wherefore he asks judgment for $17.00 and all costs of this action-

The plaintiff, G.A.Sallee, without waiving any of the allegations of paragraph number 1 herein, but reaffirming and readopting same as fully as if set out herein and for other and further cause of action against the defendant alleges that said defendant damaged the buildings and premises occupied by him and belonging to this plaintiff while so occupied to the extent of at least $40.00 and is indebted to him in said sum for the damages as aforesaid-

Wherefore plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant in the sum of $40.00 in addition to the sum of $17.00 as set out in paragraph number 1 and for all relief to which he is or may appear to be entitled-- special, general and proper-
