

Affidavit.

---

STATE OF KENTUCKY, }
Mercer County, } ss.

The affiant, John S. Buster, states that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and that he does believe, that Ernest Donihigh has committed a public offense and that said offense was committed in Mercer county, Ky., on the 7th or 8th of February 1932, in the manner and form as follows, viz: That the said Donihigh did unlawfully and willfully and feloniously with malice aforethought kill and murder Fanny Banks by shooting and wounding her with a pistol loaded with powder and other explosive and leaden bullet and other hard substance and which was then and there a deadly weapon, and from which shooting and wounding said Fanny Banks died within a year and a day.

John S. Buster

, Affiant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by John S. Buster, the affiant, this 12th day of February 1932.

Roy Graves

Examiner Mercer County, Ky.

---