

Par- 1.

Comes now the defendant and for answer to the petition herein and by way of counterclaim against the plaintiff, denies that he so operated, managed and controlled his Ford automobile in such a reckless manner as that he ran his Ford car into the Ford car of this plaintiff, thereby injuring the same and practically destroying it, to his damage in the sum of $190.00; denies that said injuries were due entirely to the negligence of defendant.

Wherefore, he prays that the petition be dismissed at plaintiff's cost-

Par- 2.

The defendant by way of counterclaim against the plaintiff alleges that the collision in which he claims that his car was injured was caused wholly and entirely by the negligence of the plaintiff and that in said collision his car was damaged in the sum of $100.00 and that said damage was caused by the carelessness and negligence of the plaintiff in the operation, management and control of his car and that but for said carelessness and negligence as aforesaid no damage would have been done to his car.

Wherefore he prays as in his first paragraph and for a judgment for $100.00 damages and for all relief to which he is entitled.
