Deed De. Collier
J. J. Jones

Day of Nov. 1914, a defendant, Brack Collier, for value received, ex-counted and delivered to the plaintiff, the decedent mentioned herein, his co-plaintiff, a promissory note for the sum of $23.00, with 6% interest thereon and date of maturity, to be paid by the year from date. Plaintiff says that said note was not paid and he ought to recover said amount with interest as of record. He says that defendant has no property in this State subject to execution and not enough to satisfy plaintiff's claim and that the collection of said claim will be endangered by defendant's obtaining a judgment and a return of no property found to satisfy the same. Plaintiff says that he is entitled to the sum of $23.00 with interest thereon from date until paid and all the costs of this action and for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant and for all relief to which he is or may be entitled to be entitled-- special, general and proper.

and has disposed of his property for the fraudulent purpose of cheating, hindering and delaying his creditors-- Note filed herewith and made a part whereof plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant for the sum of $23.00 with interest thereon from date until paid and all the costs of this action and for a general order of attachment against the
titled to be entitled-- special, general and proper.

And Divine

Subscribed and sworn to before me by the plaintiff, H. Divine, on this 16th day of July, 1924.
