

4 You will then strike a balance between the sums found for the Plaintiff and for the defendant and return your verdict in favor of the one to whom the balance if any is due.

5 However, if you believe that about January 1927 the parties had a settlement by which all the claims in evidence were settled except the DeBaun grocery bill and leaving the defendant owing that amount you will find for the Plaintiff $142.00 with ~~interest as~~
~~affex from the~~ day of ~~1927~~ and find nothing
~~for defendant.~~
