FOREWORD

And now another year has passed, and we, as another Senior Class offer the Oracle as our last endeavor as students at Burgin High School.

Herein are recorded and pictured the social and academic events of our school days. We refrain from being sentimental for, although we are saying goodbye to persons and surroundings which have grown dear to us, we are anxious to step out into the world and prove our right to our heritage. We realize that we shall find tears where we expected smiles, but we are confident that our faith in ourselves and our ideals, together with the philosophy that honesty and hard work will accomplish anything, will guide us through unpleasant situations.

So, we give you the Oracle of 1939 with the hope that it will serve to bind us closer to our Alma Mater.

"When, beloved Alma Mater,

Memory recalls

Other days of youth and laughter

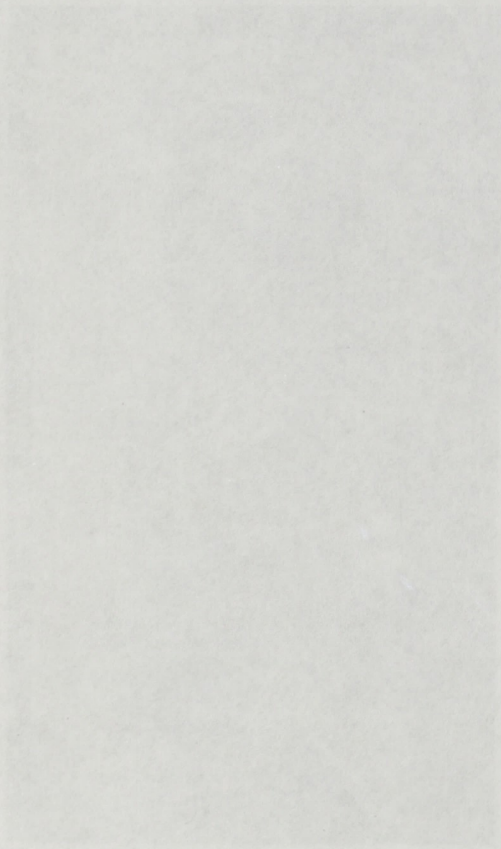

In thy gracious halls;

When thy sons and daughters scattered

Turn again to thee,

Still thy lamp is brightly lighting

Us afar that we may see."

CLASS HISTORY

From the beginning our class has been much in evidence. While we were Freshmen we frequently cast admiring glances at our superiors, as the Seniors, Juniors, and yea, even Sophmores, as we were inspired by their nonchalance. The first year passed quickly and we studied hard, forever looking forward to the day when we should become Seniors and occupy the front seats in chapel. During our first year we lost Mattie Elkins, Brent Jones and Bert Patrick. Before the year was ended R.W. Lear joined our class.

We began our second year with several of the seats vacant as Elizabeth Warner, Gladys Sergeant, Clinton Snyder, R.W. Lear, Davis Kurtz, and Jessie Mae Pierce had withdrawn. Margaret Merriman also left us but Janis Lively came to our rescue. The second semester J.C. Davis was promoted to the next grade.

The third year of our career began, and we were beginning to acquire the superiority complex that was in the possession of the Seniors. We found that Janis Lively, Georgia Hager, and Loith Gifford had withdrawn. Raymond Goodlott was promoted to the next grade but we were joined by Ada Sexton but this gain was lost when Delmer Gaskin withdrew.

The fourth and last year has finally arrived and now is composed of only five girls and four boys of our once large class, only two have which passed all twelve years at Burgin, Elizabeth Spaulding and Grover Merri-man.

We know not what our future holds, but our aim is high, as we go through life we shall often recall these happy days at Burgin High.

Mary Anne Allender

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year 1949 I was asked to check on the members of the Class of '39, that being the most illustrious class which has ever graduated from Burgin High, and see what each member was doing.

As I started out on my hunt I met Mary Anne Allender (now the wife of a Fayette County Farmer) and found that she had kept in touch with several of our classmates--

"Surely I have kept up with our classmates," she said in answer to my question. "Charles Allender, my brother lost his fear of the weaker sex and got married and is now more afraid than ever. Then there is Gwendolyn Sanders, the editor, copy writer, reporter and type setter of our county newspaper, "The Harrodsburg Herald".

"I was just starting to see Grover Merriman. He is suffering from broken bones since he won the world's heavyweight championship over Harold Bradshaw.

"In recognition of his name Lewis Bradshaw has become a preacher and has become so very angelic that he married Elizabeth Spaulding and is doing his best to make an angel out of her. After the fight Harold became a sailor and is now traveling trying to forget women mostly. Margaret Lear has lost all interest in the men and is now trying to win the long flight contest between the North and South Pole in her airplane, THE G.M."

"You know, of course, that Ada Sexton has yielded to her vocal talents and is now making a movie entitled "How'm I Doin'?"

Margaret Lear

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1939, will and bequeath the following articles to wit:

Harold Bradshaw leaves his many brains to Nancy Bennett in hope that she may be able to use them.

Lewis Bradshaw leaves his fallen arches to Jack Coleman to fulfill Jack's long wish that he might be shorter.

Charles Allender leaves his art of hairdressing to Horace Brown to use during Literature Class next year on Homer Hulette.

Mary Ann Allender leaves her Arithmetic ability to Ada Walters, who will probably now be a genius.

Ada Sexton leaves her superfluous weight to Jimmie Bradshaw---not that he needs it-----

Grever Merriman leaves his basketball technique to J.W. Wilham.

Gwendolyn Sanders leaves all her secrets solely guarded by Janet Powell--no one else would understand them.

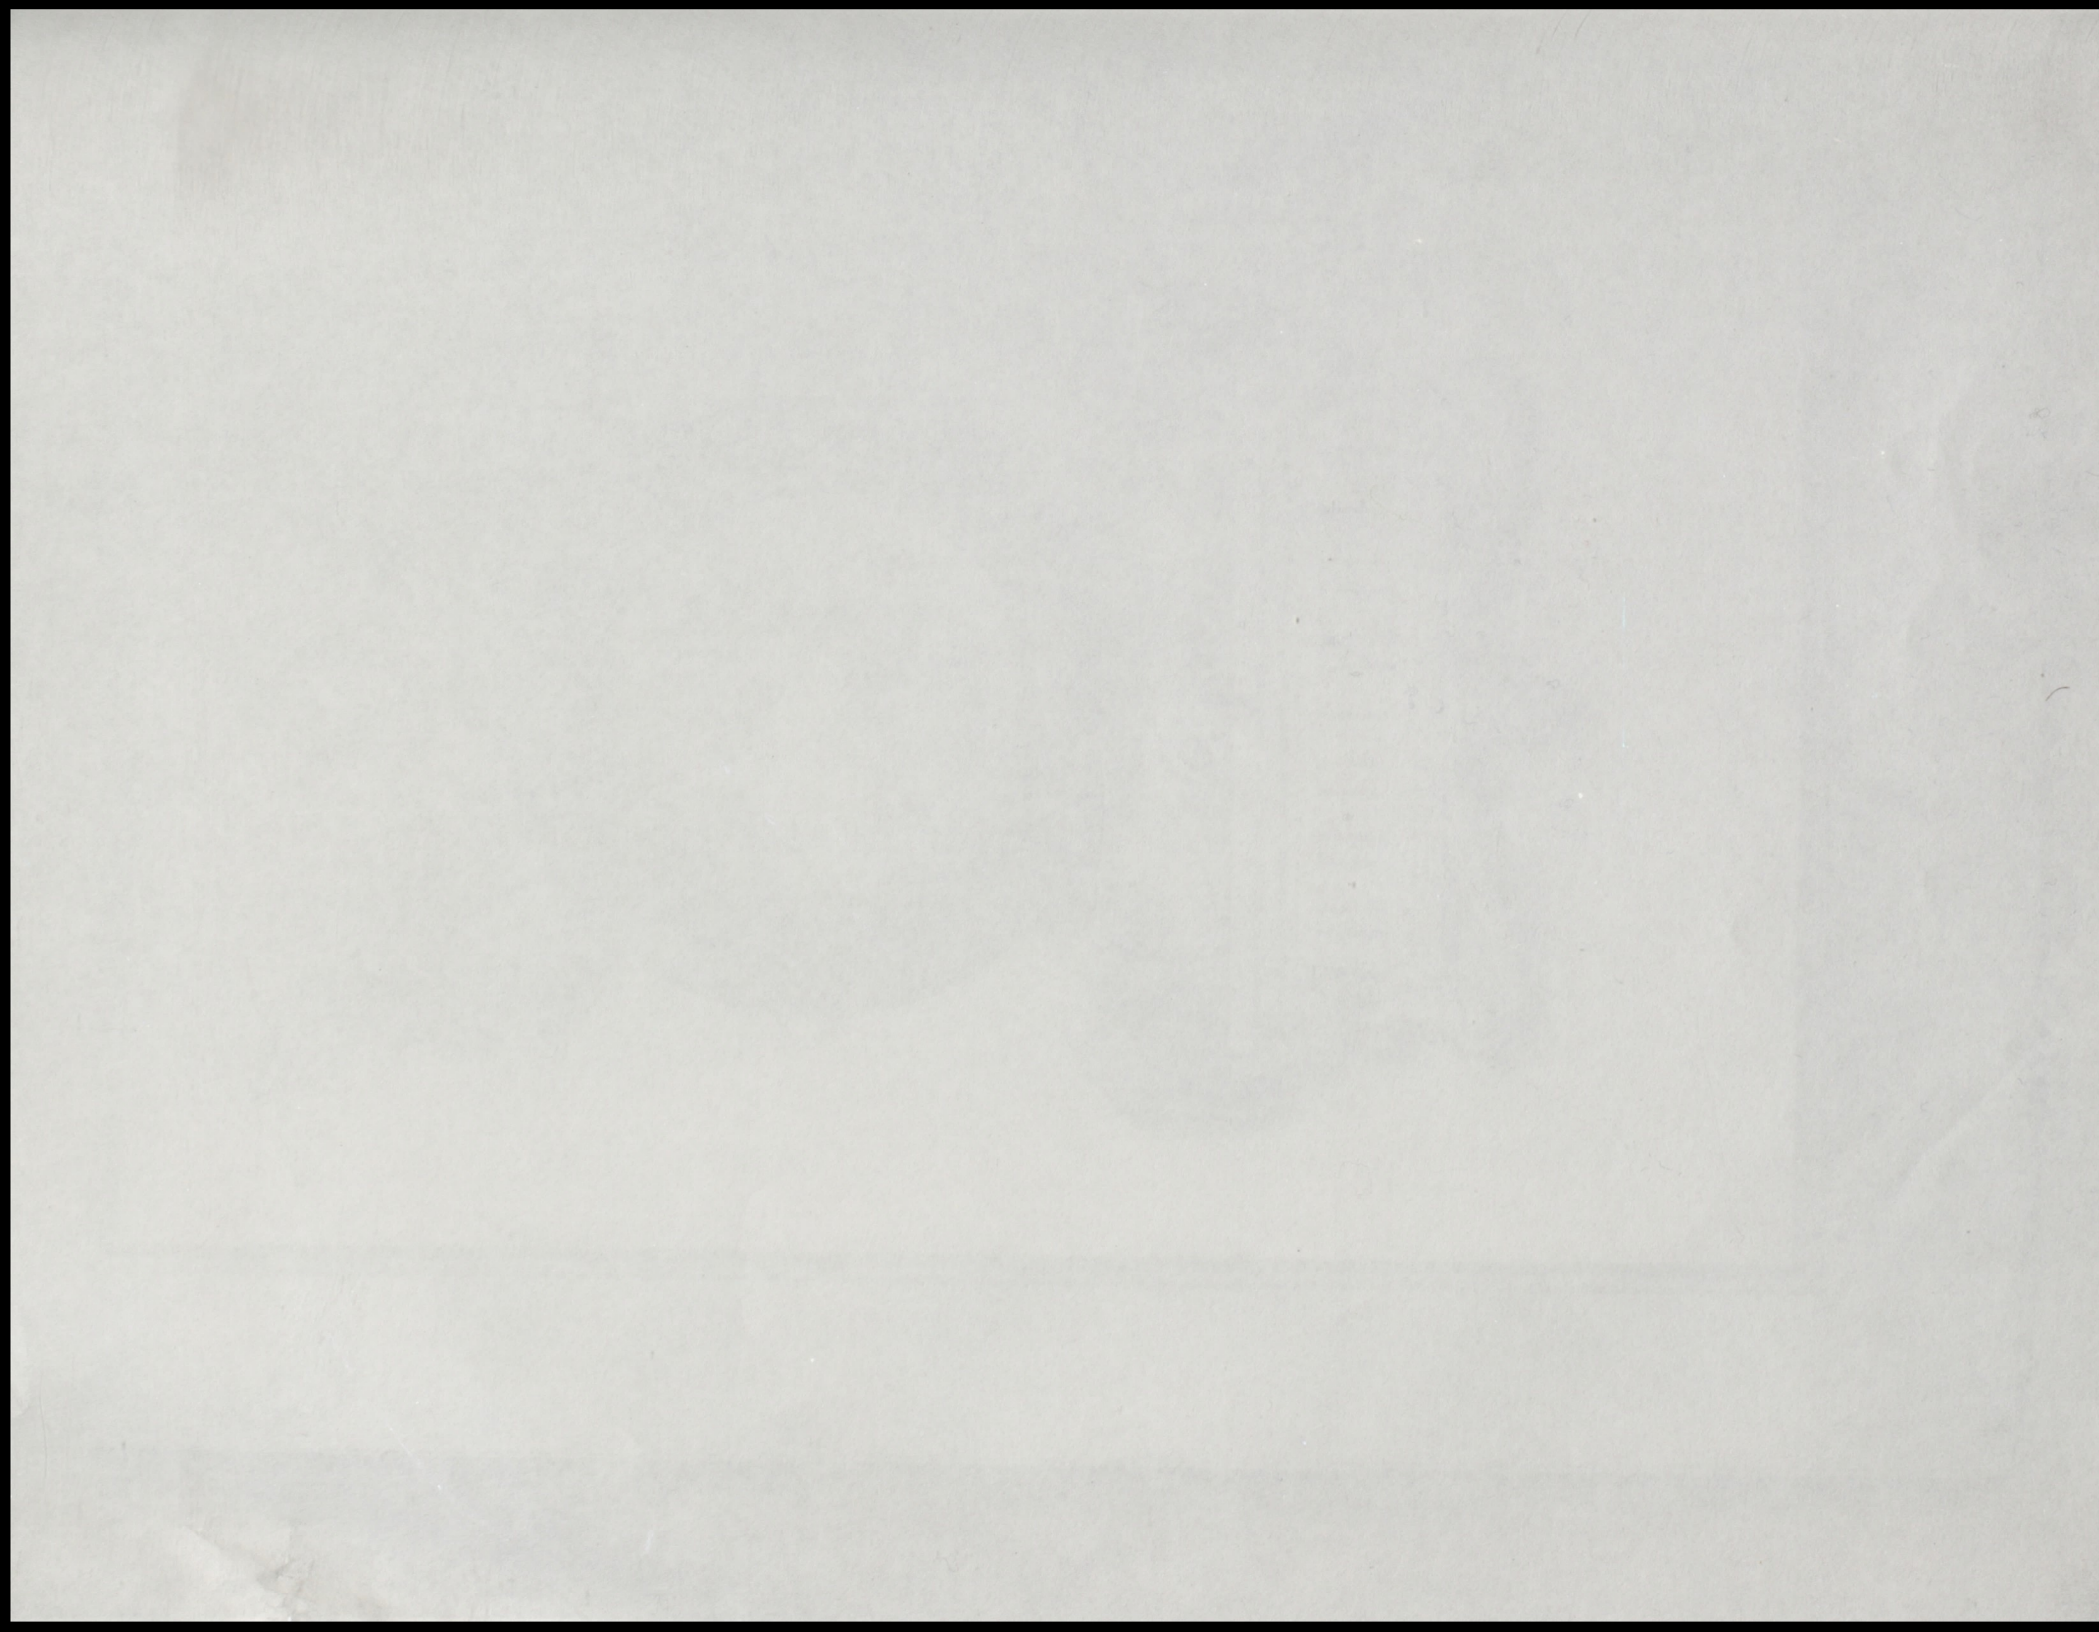

Elizabeth Spaulding leaves her book on "How to Make Love" to Joyce Ann West.

Margaret Lear leaves her many blushes to Betty Sanders---in case Betty ever runs out.
