

Eleven Kentuckians Prisoners of Axis

The War Department made public yesterday the names of eleven Kentuckians and eleven Hoosiers who are now in enemy hands.

Interned by Germany are four Kentucky soldiers, Pvt. James T. Aikin, son of Mrs. Manola Aikin, Vine Grove; Pfc.

Warren R. Dockins, son of Homer Dockins, Auburn; Lieut. R. C. Stewart, son of C. A. Stewart, Murray, and Pvt. Robert Wilson, son of Mrs. Mannie Wilson, Olympia.

Also prisoners of the Nazis are seven Hoosiers, Tech. Sergt. Kenneth W. Baldrige, son of Mrs. Audrey L. Baldrige, Bloomington; Tech. Sergt. Peter R. Brasic, brother of Mrs. Frank Russell, Gary; First Lieut. Haldron R. Haywood, son of Mrs. Floella L. Duzan, Terre Haute; Second Lieut. John T. Lamberson, son of Mrs. Bessie G. Lamberson, Straughn; Tech. Sergt. Herman Philbeck, son of Mrs. Carrie Philbeck, Richmond; Tech. Sergt. Maynard M. Spencer, husband of Mrs. Vivian R. Spencer, Rockville, and First Lieut. John H. Winchell, husband of Mrs. Mary Ruth Winchell, Indianapolis.

7 Held By Japs.

Seven Kentucky men are held captive by the Japanese, Pvt. Rutherford Begley, son of Mrs. Mellie Begley, Fariston; Pfc. Bernard A. Fields, son of Joseph W. Fields, St. John; Pvt. James R.

Rudd, son of Mrs. Millie Rudd, Cutuno; Pvt. Campbell K. Sadler, husband of Mrs. Feehn H. Sadler, Owensboro; Pvt. James W. Sallee, son of Mrs. Sarah C. Sallee, Danville; Pvt. George W. Shropshire, son of Mrs. Lulouise Shropshire, Scottsville, and Pvt. Grover D. Whittinghill, son of Mrs. Lillian Whittinghill, Cornishville.

Four Indiana soldiers are also prisoners in Japan, Pvt. James L. Choate, son of Mrs. Artie L. Choate, Evansville; Pvt. Francis A. Johnson, son of Mrs. Margaret Johnson, Vincennes; Pvt. Wayne Murray, son of Mrs. Nellie Murray, Connersville, and Pfc. William L. Vice, son of Mrs. Ara B. Crump, Oxford.

A pint of blood
can save a life!
Give yours
TODAY!

Styl
212 2

MONDAY STORE H

Aikin POW

Clipped By:

jopolony

Fri, Jul 26, 2019