

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Lee Smock Co

Plaintiff.

--v- - - - Statement.-

O. C. Armstrong

Defendant.

The plaintiff says it is a corporation under the laws of Ky with power to sue and be sued and to contract and be contracted with; that the defendant O. C. Armstrong is indebted to it in the sum of $19.59 for merchandise sold and delivered to him which he promised and agreed to pay but which he has failed to pay though it is ~~paid~~ past due; that said sum is just; that it is due on the contract to pay for said goods bought; that the defendant <sup>has</sup> ~~has~~ no property in this state subject to execution or not sufficient thereof to pay the account interest and cost and the collection of the same will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found; that it believes it should recover the sum of $19.59 interest and costs.

Wherefore it prays for judgment, order of attachment and garnishment against Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co, and for all proper relief.
