The Farmers Bank of Salvisa, Kentucky
by F. P. James Special Deputy Banking Commissioner

Plaintiff

-v- Petition

R. A. Wilham

Defendant

The plaintiff states that on January 1, 1921 W. C. Crisp executed and delivered to the defendant R. A. Wilham his promissory note by which he agreed to pay him 8 months thereafter the sum of $125.00 with interest after maturity; that by the terms of said note, notice of presentment for payment and notice of protest was waived; that before the maturity of said note the defendant R. A. Wilham, by his written endorsement on the back thereof, negotiated said note to the Farmers Bank of Salvisa, Kentucky; that said note is long past due; that no part thereof has ever been paid; that a copy thereof is filed herewith as a part hereof; that the Farmers Bank of Salvisa, Kentucky is according to law in the hands of the plaintiff for liquidation.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgment for $125.00 with 6% interest thereon ~~from~~ from September 1, 1921 until paid and costs and for all proper relief.

Attorney for the plaintiff.
