

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

Harrodsburg Implement Company,

Plff.

vs Order

Delbert Divine, &c

Deft

It appearing that the attached property herein is perishable and the cost of keeping is such that a an immediate sale is advisable, and the parties to this action claiming liens on said property, all consenting thereto, it is now ordered that the Sheriff sell said property on the best offer on the local market, and that he pay the proceeds thereof to the plaintiff, who shall hold the same subject to the future orders of this Court.

We the Jury find that the Defendant
Joe Divine, has no interest in the Crop of Corn in controversy.

W. H. Gritton

Foreman

We the Jury find that the Deft Joe Divine, has no interest in the crop of tobacco, in controversy.

W. H. Gritton