

Chelf.

Q. 5. Are you acquainted with the defendant personally?

A. 5. I am not.

Q. 6. Please state how and in what manner the Combe Printing Company printed a catalogue for the defendant, and how and what led up to the printing.

A. 6. We had some correspondence, and the catalogue was printed and shipped.

Q. 7. Will you please produce the correspondence, and identify each letter received, and if you can, a carbon copy of every letter sent to Mr. Chelf, the defendant, by the plaintiff?

A. 7. The first letter received from Mr. Chelf is dated May 25, 1918, in reply to a circular letter sent out by us.

Q. 8. Mr. Royce, I wish you would please identify all of the correspondence you have had with Mr. Chelf, not only that that led up to the printing of the catalogue, but all letters with reference to the account, and payment of the account, after the goods had been shipped.

A. 8. The first letter from Mr. Chelf is dated May 25, 1918, marked Exhibit 2, in reply to a circular letter sent out by us, marked Exhibit 1; carbon copy of letter of June 7, 1918, marked Exhibit 3; carbon copy of our letter of June 7, 1918, marked Exhibit 4; letter of Mr. Chelf, dated June 12, 1918, marked exhibit 5; letter of Mr. Chelf dated June 18, 1918, marked exhibit 6; carbon copy of our reply dated June 20, 1918, marked exhibit 7; letter of Mr. Chelf, dated August 2, 1918, marked exhibit 8; copy of our reply dated August 12, 1918, marked exhibit 9; copy of our letter of Sept. 21, 1918, marked exhibit 10; letter of Mr. Chelf, dated September 25, 1918, marked exhibit 11; copy of our letter of September 27, 1918, marked exhibit 12; copy of our letter of October 5, 1918, marked exhibit 13; letter of Mr. Chelf, dated October 10, 1918, marked Exhibit 14; copy of our letter of October 14, 1918, marked Exhibit 15; letter of Mr. Chelf, dated October 14, 1918, marked Exhibit 16; copy of our letter of October 15, 1918, marked exhibit 17; letter of Mr. Chelf dated November 12, 1918, marked Exhibit 18.