

copy of our letter of November 22, 1918, marked exhibit 20;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated November 25, 1918, marked Exhibit 21;
copy of our letter of November 30, 1918, marked exhibit 22;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated December 3, 1918, marked Exhibit 23;
copy of our letter of December 6, 1918, marked exhibit 24;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated December 9, 1918, marked Exhibit 25;
copy of our letter of December 14, 1918, marked Exhibit 26;
copy of our letter of January 1, 1918, marked Exhibit 27;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated January 7, 1919, marked Exhibit 28;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated January 16, 1919, marked Exhibit 29;
copy of our letter of January 20, 1919, marked Exhibit 30;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated January 23, 1919, marked Exhibit 31;
copy of our letter of January 25, 1919, marked Exhibit 32;
copy of our letter of February 20, 1919, marked Exhibit 33;
copy of our letter of March 11, 1919, marked Exhibit 34;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated March 17, 1919, marked Exhibit 35;
copy of our letter of March 21, 1919, marked Exhibit 36;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated March 27, 1919, marked Exhibit 37;
copy of our letter of March 29, 1919, marked Exhibit 38;
letter of Mr. Chelf, dated June 23, 1919, marked Exhibit 39; letter of Mr. Chelf, dated August 12, 1919, marked Exhibit 40;
Q. 9. Mr. Royce, in what way were these letters from Mr. Chelf received? by the Combe Printing Company?

A. 9. By mail, in the usual course of business.

Q. 10. In what manner were the original letters, carbon copies of which you have produced, transmitted to Mr. Chelf?

A. 10. By mail, in an envelope addressed to Mr. F. C. Chelf, Harrodsburg, Kentucky, proper postage on the envelope, and the envelope containing the letters delivered to the Post OFFICE at St. Joseph, Missouri.

Q. 11. You may state whether or not the letters received from Mr. Chelf were sent in the ordinary course of business, and any reply to letters sent by you?

A. 11. They were.

Q. 12. Will you please state what books of account are kept by