DEFENDANT.

Hatchell states that on the 28th, day of September, 1925, L. Gardner executed and delivered to him a check for $25.00, payable to the order of the State Bank & Trust Company of Harrodsburg, Kentucky, and he says that he presented said check to the defendant for the reason that the defendant was indebted to him for said check; he says that by reason of the check that the defendant is indebted to him for interest thereon from the 28th, day of September, 1925, said check was given to him by the defendant as a part hereof.

He says that said amount of $25.00, is just, due and unpaid and that the defendant has refused and failed to pay same.

He says that the defendant has removed or is about to remove his property or a material part thereof, out of this State, not leaving enough thereof therein to satisfy the plaintiff's claim or the claims of the said defendant's creditors and that he has sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of his property, or suffered or permitted it to be sold with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder or delay his creditors; he says that the defendant is now a non resident of the State of Kentucky, and is now absent therefrom and that to the best of his knowledge and belief his present post
