

Levied the attached distress warrant in favor of the Twin Chimney Mining Co and against Heyward Minerals Co on the following property in Mercer County Kentucky, levied on as the property of Heyward Minerals Co; 40 tons of coal; all pumps; air drills, all lose pipes piping fitting and wrenches; ~~ixsxxkblxxkxxsmithxtolix~~ 1 lot cooking utensils, lot of hammers saws, wrenches, hatchets ~~and~~ nails and groceries in commissary; 8 mattresses, 11 comforts, 9 blankets, 3 heating stoves, 1 cooking stove, 1 table in shack No. 1; 1 stove and 1 table in shack No. 2; 7 mattresses 5 comforts, 2 blankets in Shack No. 3; hack-saw, forge, grind-stone anvil and other black smith tools in shop; 1 ^{pile} 2" oak lumber 3 ore cars 2 hoisting engines on outside of mill building; lot of mine shovels, picks, hammers ~~2 pumps~~ 2 pumps, and other tools, all in the Store Room; also the following in the Mill Building, 1 pipe threader 2" to 6"; 1 smoke stack about 30 ft long; 8 sections screw conveyers 1 set of ore screens; 1 butchart table, 2 wilfrey tables, 8 wheelbarrows 10 pieces shafting, 8 complete sets brackets for tables; 2 sets table frames, elevator cups complete, sprocket chains shafting and sprockets for elevator conveyers; 1 greenwall 40 h.p. engine 1 ~~santerigxxx~~ centrifugal pump; 2 eccentrics for jigs, jig irons for same; following in the office 2 desks ~~3xxhxxixx~~, 5 chairs 3 tables, 4 cots, 2 beds, 19 comforts 17 blankets.

~~re~~The foregoing is levied on as ~~the~~ property of Heyward Minerals Co to the extent of the right title and interest they have or own therein and no further.

Also levied on any and all rights, interests and property of Heyward Minerals Co in and to the mineral lease covering what is known as the Twin Chimney mineral property in Mercer County Ky said lease being of record in the Mercer County Court Clerk's Office in M.B. p