

Cogar Grain & Coal Co.,

Plaintiff,

-vs-

PETITION

Haggard King,

Defendant.

Plaintiff, Cogar Grain & Coal Company states that it is a corporation organized under and existing by virtue of the laws of the State of Kentucky, and as such has the power to contract and be contracted with; to sue and be sued; and was so empowered at all times herein mentioned.

It says that the defendant, Haggard King, by a writing dated June 9th 1924, which he executed and delivered to plaintiff, and which will be filed herewith if required, promised to pay to One hundred dollars ( $ 100.00 ) six months after said date, to-wit: June 9th, 1924, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum after said date until paid.

Plaintiff says that defendant has not paid said ( $ 100.00 ) or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, and that same is now due and owing this plaintiff and wholly unpaid.

WHEREFORE, Cogar Grain Coal and Feed Company prays judgment against defendant, Haggard King, in the sum of $ 100.00 with interest thereon from June 9th, 1924 until paid; for its cost herein and for all proper relief, both legal and equitable which it may appear to be entitled.
