

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT.

N L Curry Grocery Company,

Plff.

cs Petition

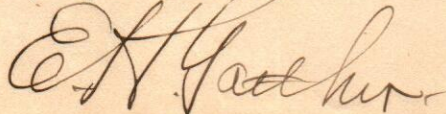

W H Bunnell, and William Bunnell,

Deft

The Plaintiff N L Curry Grocery Company states that it is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of Kentucky with its principal place of business of Harrodsburg, Ky. and that it is authorized to do a general wholesale grocery business.

That on the 18th day of Oct 1920 the defendants W H Bunnell and William Bunnell doing business under the firm name of W H Bunnell & Son and for value received they executed and delivered to the plaintiff a check upon the Farmers Bank of Salvisa, Ky, for $133.17 That said check was signed by the said W H Bunnell & Son and was payable to the Plaintiff. That said check was duly presented to the Farmers Bank of Salvisa and that payment thereof was refused. That no part thereof has ever been paid. Said check is filed herewith.

Wherefore it prays judgment against the said W H Bunnell & Son for the said sum of $133.17 with interest from date thereof, to wit Oct 18th 1920 and for all proper relief.

Atty for Plff