W.E. Gritton

Plaintiff

Vs. Petition

J.C. Bradley

Defendant

The plaintiff, W.E. Gritton. States that the defendant, J.C. Bradley, by a writing dated February 16, ~~1927~~ 1925, which he signed and delivered to the plaintiff, and which is filed herewith, promised to pay to the plaintiff One hundred Dollars, four months after said date with interest from maturity but has not paid any ~~part~~ part of said money nor any interest thereon except ten Dollars, May 17, 1927.

Plaintiff says that the defendant has not enough property in this State, subject to execution or not enough <sup>thereof</sup> to pay plaintiff and the other creditors of defendant: that he will be endangered in delay in securing judgment and return of no property found.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant, for ~~$103.00~~ $103.00, for a general order of attachment against the property of the defendant, for his costs and to all other relief to which he may appear entitled.
