

--VS-- Affidavit.

Gene Sallee,

Defendant.

The affiant~~s~~ Luther Lawson says that the plaintiffs are a firm composed of Luther Lawson and W.A. Lawson, doing a grocery business in Harrodsburg, Kentucky, and that the defendant Gene Sallee is indebted to them in the sum of $~~12.50~~<sup>9.39</sup> for goods, wares and merchandise which the plaintiffs furnished to the defendant at his special instance and request and for which he promised and agreed to pay; he says that account is just, due and unpaid and that no part of same has ever been paid and that he believes they ought to recover said amount of $~~12.50~~<sup>9.39</sup> with interests and costs from said defendant; he says that the defendant has no property in this State or not enough thereof subject to execution to satisfy plaintiffs demand and that the <sup>collection of</sup> same will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment or a return of no property found. He says that J. Harvey Vardivier is indebted to the defendant and asks that he be summoned as Garnishee herein.

Luther Lawson.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Luther Lawson this the 18th, day of June, 1920.
