

Mercer Quarterly Court

Mercer Garage & Welding Co.,

Plaintiff

VS.

William Tewmey,

Defendant

Plaintiffs, Tom Durr, Curry Marksbury and A.W. Comingo, doing business under the partnership name of Mercer Garage & Welding Company, by which name they bring this suit, state that there is due this plaintiff from the defendant, William Tewmey, the sum of $17.47 which they claim with interest from May 2nd., 1921, on a bank check which defendant signed and delivered to this plaintiff and by which defendant promised to pay the sum of $17.47. Check is filed herewith as part hereof.

Plaintiff states that said check was duly presented at the First National Bank for payment but that defendant had no funds at said Bank and said check was not paid. Plaintiff states that there are no offsets or discounts against said check and that there is now due this plaintiff the sum of $17.47

Premises considered plaintiff prays judgment against defendant for the sum of $17.47 ; for costs of this suit and for all releif to which they may appear to be entitled.
