- Vs- Petition

Will Lay

Defendant

The Plaintiffs W.T. Durr, Currey Marksbury and Mrs. A. W. Comingo doing business under the name of Mercer Garage & Welding Company state that the defendant, Will Lay is indebted to them in the sum of $32.76 for work and labor done on a car and accessories and supplies furnished for the same. Itemized statement of account is filed herewith as part hereof.

They state that said account is due and unpaid and thod demand has been made upon defendant he has failed and r f refused and still fails and refuses to pay said account or any part of the same.

Wherefore, Etc.

They state thaat this is an action upon a contract being a contract to pay money ; that said account is just that the defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not sufficent to satisfy the plaintiffs' debt and costs and the collection of this debt will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.
