

DEATHS

BROWN

George A. Brown, 66 years old, died June 2, 1936, near Salvisa. He was the son of William H. and Mattie Fulkerson Brown and a member of the Ebenezer Christian church where his funeral was conducted by Rev. C. Marion Bailey, with burial in the Ebenezer cemetery. Surviving Mr. Brown are his wife, four daughters, Mrs. Belle Wayne, Mrs. Georgia May Coyle, Mrs. Bettie Steele, Mrs. Daisy Roach and three sons, James, Allen and Sam Brown, all of Mercer county. He also leaves 22 grandchildren.

LEAMAY

Charles LeMay, 60 years old, died June 1, 1936, near Salvisa. He had formerly lived in the Burgin section and was the son of George H. and Eliza Puckett LeMay. He was unmarried and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Charles Gorham and Mrs. Barnett, of this county. The funeral was conducted at the church at Oregon by Reverend Rutherford, and burial was in Shawnee Run Cemetery.

THACKER

Funeral services for Waller Bailey Thacker, 24 years old, were conducted at the grave in the cemetery at Lawrenceburg, Monday afternoon by Rev. G. W. Eldred, pastor of the Lawrenceburg Christian church. The young man died on Saturday, June 6, 1936 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac N. Thacker, Woodford street, after a lingering period of ill health. His mother was formerly Miss Lucy Bailey, of Harrodsburg, and he spent much time here where he was very popular. With an exceptionally bright mind and attractive personality he won friends readily and general regret for his passing was felt by those who knew him here. He was graduated from the Lawrenceburg high school and Eastern Teachers College at Richmond.

Besides his parents he is survived by two sisters, Misses Mary Ann and Frances Thacker, Lawrenceburg, and a brother, Marion Thacker, Frankfort.

Those from Harrodsburg who attended the funeral were Mrs. Maude Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey, Mrs. D. M. Hutton, Miss Mary Elizabeth Hutton, Miss Mary Clarence Chelf, Miss Mary Frances Watts, Mrs. Arthur Bonta.

BOHON

Col. William Joshua Bohon, who was 93 years old last December, died at noon Tuesday, June 9, 1936, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emmett B. Johnson, and Mr. Johnson, in Birmingham, Ala. The funeral service was at 3 o'clock Wednesday at the family lot in Spring Hill cemetery in this city, conducted by Rev. T. Hassell Bowen, pastor of the Christian church.

Col. Bohon, born in Monticello, Ky., a son of William Bohon and Verinda Hutchison Bohon, came to Harrodsburg when quite young with his parents, where his father established a large mercantile business which he conducted the remainder of his life. Col. Bohon was a Confederate veteran and for more than thirty years a traveling salesman in Kentucky and Middle Tennessee. He was one of the best known of the old time "drummers" in the state, and his genial personality won him a large following of patrons and friends. He was a member of the old dry goods firm of Hays, Curry and Bohon and started as a traveling salesman in January, 1866. His first trips were made on horseback, but for fifty years or more he never missed a season. In some cases he sold to the third generation of customers families. He continued to travel until 1926 and the next year went to Alabama to live with his daughter. In spite of his great years he retained his keen mind almost to the end.

Col. Bohon enlisted in the Confederate cavalry in 1857 while clerking in his father's store in Harrodsburg. For four years during the War Between the States he served in the Fourth Kentucky Cavalry under Gen. John Hunt Morgan. He was wounded twice; was captured and placed in Rock Island prison; returned in exchange for war prisoners, and surrendered with the Confederate forces at Mt. Sterling, May 9, 1866. He returned to Harrodsburg after the war where he resided; later he lived in Danville, over a long period until his wife died some years ago. He also lived in Louisville.

At the time of his death he was the oldest member of the Falls City Lodge of Masons and was also a member of the DeMolay Commandery Knights Templar, and of the Christian church. He was well known and much loved in Harrodsburg, which he visited regularly until advancing years kept him from venturing very far from home. His ancestors came from Orange county, Virginia, and were dwellers in Old Fort Harrod and active in settling this first town in Kentucky.

He is survived by a son, George C. Bohon, Louisville; two daughters, Mrs. Wallace Crume, Chicago, and Mrs. Emmett Johnson, Birmingham, Ala. and he also leaves a number of grandchildren; a brother, R. S. Bohon, Decatur, Illinois, and a sister, Mrs. A. H. Peacock, Dallas, Texas.

Bearers at the funeral were H. C. Bohon, Charles Bohon, Davis Bohon, Lindsey Ingram, Banks Hudson, Jr., Danville, and Owen R. Mann, Louisville.

Besides members of his family, a number of out-of-town relatives and friends were here to attend the funeral.

SCROGHAM

Andrew Jackson Scrogam, 79, died at his home near Tablow Wednesday afternoon, May 28, 1936. His funeral was held at Antioch church in Washington county, with burial in Antioch cemetery with services by Rev. T. Hassell Bowen and Rev. G. J. Sparrow. Mr. Scrogam is survived by his wife, Mrs. Polly Jane Scrogam, one daughter, Mrs. R. S. Cornelius, Harrodsburg; two sons, Oscar Scrogam, Washington county, and Edgar Scrogam, this county; two sisters, Mrs. Nannie Hardin, Louisville, and Mrs. Eliza Hardin, Shelbyville, Ind.; two brothers, Lem Scrogam, Owensboro, Ind., and Ben Scrogam, Harrodsburg; and nine grandchildren. Pallbearers were his grandsons, James, Robert, Richard, Fred, Daniel Cornelius and Goebel Weldon.

DENTAL DIPLOMA WON BY LOCAL YOUNG MAN

Thomas T. Squifflett was graduated this week from the University of Louisville Dental College with an excellent rating, and the youngest member in the large class. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Squifflett, and Miss Mary Louise Squifflett went to Louisville to attend the baccalaureate service Sunday at the First Christian church, and the commencement Tuesday at the University auditorium. Young Dr. Squifflett is returning to Harrodsburg until he decides on a location.
