

Affidavit.

STATE OF KENTUCKY, }
Mercer County, } ss.

The affiant, Allen Bunnell, states that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and that he does believe, that H. L. Jackson has committed a public offense and that said offense was committed in Mercer county, Ky., on the March or April 1932, in the manner and form as follows, viz: That the said Jackson committed the offense of Petit Larceny by taking and carrying away without the owners consent Commonwealth of Kentucky, rock of less value than $20.00 and with the intent to permanently deprive the owner thereof.

Allen Bunnell, Affiant.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by Al. Bunnell, the affiant, this 15, Apr., 1932.

Summon for Commonwealth-

Ray E. Branes,
Examiner Mercer County, Ky.

Al Bunnell
Nancy M. Stone
Hollis Divine