They say that they desire to sell said land and re-invest in other property; that they have a purchaser for same at a price which will yield them a considerable profit on the cost thereof, but on account of the disability of Virgle// Patterson, as to age, they cannot make to the purchaser a good title without the aid of the court. They say that Petitioner, Ezra Patterson, is of full age.

Wherefore they pray that the said ~~xxx~~ Virgle Patterson be permitted and authorized by the court to unite with her husband, Petitioner Ezra Patterson, in the conveyance of the real estate described above so as to release her prospective right of dower therein. They pray for all proper relief.
