Def

The affiant B F Norfleet states that he is the Manager of the Harrodsburg Implement Company, the plaintiff in this action : That the defendant Delbert Divine is so concealing himself that a service cannot be had upon him, and that the plaintiff is ignorant of the place where the defendant now conceals himself and that this affiant has no knowledge of where the defendant now is. That the property attached herein is perishable and that the cost of keeping is such as to demand an immediate sale.
