

CHRISTMAS IN APRIL—even though it's a few years behind schedule, too—is still Christmas, especially when it includes a family gathering and presents to be opened. Sgt. Charles Quinn, captured by the Japs at Corregidor in May, 1942, opened his 1941 Christmas box in Dayton yesterday assisted his his nephews, Melvin Quinn Jr. (left) and Jackie Quinn.

Quinn Christmas Apr 45 Picture

Clipped By:

jopolony

Mon, Feb 1, 2021