

Bataan Survivors En Route To Japan

HARRODSBURG, Ky., Sept. 8 (UP)—Three of Harrodsburg's famed 61 survivors of Bataan, captured in 1942 with the 192nd Tank Battalion, were returning to the Far East today.

Judson Simpson, Lonnie Gray and Cecil Quinn were on their way back to Japan, scene of their long imprisonment, with members of their present units.

They enlisted in the regular Army after their liberation from the Japanese.

The trio expects to be sent to the Korean war from Japan.
