

Mercer Quarterly Court

Homer Yates,

Plaintiff

vs Petition in Equity

Edd Sims, The George Bohon Co

Defendant

The Plaintiff, Homer Yates, states that on the 4th day of Sept, 1913, he and the defendant executed their certain promissory note to the George Bohon Company, whereby they agreed and promised to pay to said Company the sum of $119.22 with interest from Jan'y 1st, 1914. He states that said debt will not become due until Jan'y 1st, 1914 and that on said note and debt this plaintiff was the surety for the defendant.

He states that said defendant is about to sell, convey or otherwise dispose of his property for the purpose of cheating, hindering and delaying his creditors and this plaintiff, and to compel this plaintiff to pay said George Bohon Company, the above described note, unless he is prevented from selling said property by order of Court.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays for an order of attachment against the property of the defendant, ^{Edd Sims} and for a judgment against him for the sum of $119.22 with six per cent interest from Jan'y 1st, 1914 and that said attached property be sold to satisfy said debt, and costs of this action. He prays for his costs and all proper relief.
