

MERCER QUARTERLY COURT

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

HUNTER COLEMAN & W. B. GODDARD

PLAINTIFFS

VS

DEFENDANT

Plaintiffs, Hunter Coleman & W. B. Goddard state that defendant Randall Pinkston is indebted to them in the sum of $27.50 for professional services rendered at his special instance and request; that said account is just, due and unpaid and though demand has been made up defendant he has failed and refused and still fails and refuses to pay said account or any part of same.

Plaintiffs say that this is an action upon a contract, being a contract to pay money for professional services rendered; that they believe they ought to recover the amount of the account, to wit: $27.50; that said account is just; that defendant has no property in this state subject to execution or not enough thereof to satisfy and pay said demand and that collection will be endangered by delay in obtaining judgment and return of no property found.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray judgment against defendant for the sum of $27.50, for cost of this action, and for a general order of attachment of property of defendant, including a summons against the garnishee, L. E. Myers Company, ^{Construction} _A and pray further for all other relief to which they may appear entitled.
