

The affiant G. B. Brown Mercer Quarterly Court.

G. B. Brown

Plaintiff.

-v- Petition

James L. Demaree
S. E. Demaree

Defendants.

The plaintiff states that the defendants by their written joint promisory note dated January 24, 1907, agreed and promised to pay him four months thereafter the sum of $100.00 with 6% interest from date until paid; that said note is long past due and no part thereof has ever been paid except $30.42, on Nov. 4, 1907; that said note is on file in this Court in the case of G. B. Brown vs Jas. L. Demaree &c, and for that reason it cannot be filed herewith, but it is made a part hereof by reference.

~~Wherefore he prays judgment against the defendants for $100~~

He states that said sum of $100.00 with 6% interest thereon from Jan 24, 1907 until paid less $30.42 paid Nov. 4, 1907, is just, due and owing to him; that he believes he should have and recover said sum with interest and costs; that the defendants ^{and each of them} has no property in this State subject to execution and not enough thereof to satisfy this debt, interest and costs and the collection thereof will be endangered by delay in obtaining a judgment and a return of no property found.

Wherefore he prays a general order of attachment, for judgment against the defendants for $100 with 6% interest from Jan 24, 1917 until paid subject to said credit and costs, with garnishment against Mercer National Bank of Harrodsburg, Ky, and generally for costs and all proper relief.

C. E. Rankin, Atty