

Mercer Quarterly Court

John H. Tyler

Plaintiff

-v- Answer

Flem Freeman

Defendant

The defendant for answer denies that the steer got over the fence of the defendant; denies that the steer was of the value of $55 or any value in excess of $30; denies that he carelessly, or negligently, or wrongfully, or tortiously, or at all run said steer over or against the fence, or struck or beat him with rocks, or clubs, or other hard substances, or with any of either, or thereby broken the leg of said steer or rendered him worthless, or of no value or in the damage to the plff of $55 or any sum at all.

Wherefore having fully answered he prays to be dismissed with his costs and all proper relief.
