

Mercer Quarterly Court.

Joe Y. Vanarsdall

Plaintiff.

-v- Petition.

J. D. Riley J. W. Riley
W. K. Parrott

Defendants.

Plaintiff states that on Jan 18, 1915 the defendants J. W. Riley and J. D. Riley executed and delivered to the defendant W. K. Parrott their joint written promisory note of that date by which they agreed and promised to pay to said Parrott six months thereafter the sum of $140 with 6% interest thereon from its date until paid; said note is in words and figures as follows "Cornishville, Ky Jan 18, 1915. Six mos after date we promise to pay to the order of W. K. Parrott, one hundred forty dollars negotiable and payable at the union bank of cornishville Ky value received with interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum after date until paid and we the drawers and endorsers severally waive presentment for payment, protest and notice of protest. J. D. Riley J. W. Riley" $140

He says that the defendant ~~W. K. Parrott~~, and this plaintiff is now the ~~owner~~ ~~holder~~ holder of said note, in due course, and entitled to collect the same from all of the defendants jointly.

He says that said note is long past due, is filed herewith as a part hereof, and no part thereof has ever been paid.

Wherefore he prays judgment against the defendants for $140.00 with 6% interest thereon from Jan 18, 1915, and costs and all proper relief.
