

E L Martin, doing business
as E L Martin & Co,

Plff.

vs Petition

L D Sims, doing business under the name of Sanitary Meat Market,

Deft

The Plaintiff, E L Martin, states that he is doing business under the firm name of E L Martin & Company, but that he is the sole owner of said business: that the defendant L D Sims is doing business under the name of Sanitary Meat Market and that he is the sole owner of said business.

from
He says that ~~xx~~ July 21st 1925 to Nov 25th 1925, he sold and delivered to the defendant, at his special instance and request, certain goods wares and merchandise, an itemized account of which was rendered defendant at the time of delivery, and summary of same is filed herewith, amounting to the sum of $132.66 which the defendant agreed and promised to pay, but no part of which has ever been paid except $1.92, a credit for goods returned, leaving the defendant indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $130.75

and due
He says that that the said account is just/and that the plaintiff ought to recover the amount claimed, to wit, $130.75 and the cost of this action. That the defendant has not sufficient property subject to execution to satisfy plaintiff's demand and that the collection of his demand will be endangered by delay in ~~xxxxxxingxx~~ obtaining judgment and a return of no property found. That the defendant is selling, conveying and other wise disposing of his property with the fraudulent intent to cheat, hinder and delay his creditors, and that he is about to so dispose